A PATHETIC STORY.

On Sunday night at Mt. Olive Baptist Church, an incident was brought to light that was very sad and which elicited the sympathy of all present who are in the least inclined to be of a forgiving nature. Dr. Clark, the pastor, stated that he had a beautiful object to show the audience, the story of which can best be told by the following letter:

Nashville, Tenn., November, '07.
Elder Clark:

Kind Sir:—It is emergency that causes me to humbly beg of you, also congregation, the sympathy for a poor fellowman that has met with misfortune. The majority of my days have been spent in the vilest of sin. Just one year ago I became aware of my future destination, should I continue to lead the life that I was living, so I concluded to lead a different life. I prayed to God to teach me to serve him and I do sincerely believe my prayers were answered. I have been incarcerated in prison now over two years and this has caused me to entirely reform. I humbly ask you to deliver this message to your congregation and ask them one and all to pray for me that I may live closer to Christ. Here is a hat rack that I make a present to the church, and I hope it will be accepted, and if so, state to your congregation by whom and where it was made—in the Nashville State Prison by George Payne. I also send a walking-cane that I make a present to you. Several days ago I sent a saddle to you, but I do not know if it was delivered. Sincerely hoping you all to pray for me, I am,

An humble believer in Christ,
GEORGE PAYNE,
Sta. A., Nashville, Tenn.

MISS THOMPSON GOES TO MISSISSIPPI.

Miss John D. Thompson, of De-mobren street, has accepted a position to teach at Bogue Chitto, Miss. Miss Thompson is a graduate of the Normal Department of Fisk University and until the Board of Trustees decided to retrench on the expenses, taught at the Tennessee School for the Blind. She is popular in clubdom, being a member of the H. T. G. M. and the Wednesday Evening Musical Club. Miss Thompson left for her new field of labor Wednesday night.

IN HONOR OF MISS GREEN.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKay entertained Mr. and Mrs. Durant Houston and Miss Virginia Green, of New Orleans, who are here attending Meharry, last Sunday evening. The table was beautifully decorated, representing mid-autumn. Those present beside the honorees were Mrs. L. Larkins and Mr. Wm. Nixon.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Joe Rucker, one of the High School boys, while playing at recess, fractured his leg. Dr. Hale was hurriedly called and the fractured member was set. At this writing Mr. Rucker is doing well.

RETURNS TO THE CITY.

Elder Preston Taylor, after spending about four weeks in Los Angeles, Cal., will return home Sunday, Nov. 17. On his way back he will pass through the following states: Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and Illinois. He reached Chicago Thursday and visited the Christian church and his friends. He will preach to his congregation Sunday morning.

MIXED DATES.

The editor of the Globe made an amusing miscalculation last week. His birthday was on November 9, but somehow or other he imagined that November 8 was November 9, and invited friends to partake of his hospitality on Friday. The next day he found that he had made an error and invited the same friends to a repetition of the proceedings of the preceding night.

PASSED AWAY.

Mrs. Alice Marshall, after fourteen months illness, passed away at her residence, 2120 North Vance street, last Thursday morning. The remains were conveyed to Mt. Gilbert Cemetery, White's Creek. Rev. John Franklin, of Edgefield Junction, officiated at the services at Ebenezer Baptist Church.

Mrs. Preston, of Michigan, and Mrs. Frances Joseph-Gaudett, of New Orleans, were delegates to the W. C. T. U. Convention, Mrs. Gaudett is a national character, and has accomplished more good as a prison missionary than any other woman in the world.

NOVEMBER WEDDINGS.

Hall-Lowery.

On Thursday evening of last week a pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Lowery. The contracting parties were Miss Freddie J. Lowery and Mr. Clarence Hall. Rev. Nathan Smith performed the ceremony. Mr. Hall is a worthy young man, a son of Mrs. Susan Howard, and has a large circle of acquaintances. Miss Lowery moved to the city with her parents some five years ago, and has many friends both in Georgia, where she spent her girlhood days, and in Tennessee. A number of friends witnessed the affair.

Lanier-Trammell.

The marriage of Miss Annie Trammell and Mr. R. J. Lanier was beautifully and impressively solemnized at 8 o'clock last Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, No. 200 Third avenue, South. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Bolden before an altar of palms and ferns, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mr. Caesar Cooper's Orchestra, the bridal party entered the room. The maid of honor, Miss Frankie Trammell, preceded by the bride, beautifully dressed in white, carrying a large bouquet of bride's roses, leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Frank H. Trammell, was followed by the groom and best man, Mr. John Ronnie. It was a beautiful scene long to be remembered by those who witnessed it. Many costly and beautiful presents were received.

Bell-Hoskins.

A wedding of interest to many of their friends was that of Miss Eva Hoskins and Mr. Robert Bell, which was solemnized Tuesday night at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ella Darden, on Williams street, by Rev. Wm. Flagg. The house decorations were attractive and elaborate, the house being arranged with tall, graceful ferns, palms and cut flowers. Miss Addie Flite was at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as a processional and intermezzo during the ceremony. Dr. Frank Strong sang a beautiful selection. Miss Sarah E. Flagg was at the piano, and the programme of wedding music was unusually beautiful. Miss Ella Darden, who was the maid of honor and only attendant, wore a lovely blue flannel trimmed in white silk braid, with a white girle, slippers and gloves to match. Her bouquet was of roses and carnations. The best man was the bride's nephew, Mr. Geo. Darden. The bride entered with the best man and she was lovely in her gown of white organdie.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party, relatives and friends were highly entertained and served from the bride's table, which had a mound in the center loaded with all kinds of fruit. The most attractive thing was the bride's cake, which had in it a darning needle, ring and a dime. Miss Queenie Arnold drew the ring; Miss Viola Flagg, the needle; and Mrs. Warfield, the dime. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Bell, who received a large assortment of costly gifts, left for their home on Jefferson street.

CARNATION CLUB.

Mrs. Geo. W. Ward entertained the Carnation Club Monday afternoon at her residence, on the corner of Bass street and Ewing avenue. After an hour had been spent in work the guests were invited into the dining room, where a two-course luncheon was served with ices. The table was the center of attraction, having a centerpiece of battenburg lace on which rested a stand of pink roses and ferns. The club guests were Mesdames P. R. Burrus, H. A. Dodd, John Cunningham, I. A. Nicholson, Messrs. P. A. Washington, Robt. Ralph. The members present were Mesdames H. M. Burns, Hal Duff, W. M. Rucker, Robt. Ralph, C. Battle, P. A. Washington, C. C. Winstead, C. L. Woods, W. S. Amos, Sidney Bond, P. A. Simms, Lawrence Moore, L. E. Battle, Geo. Ward, Horace Wade. The Club will meet with Mrs. P. A. Washington, 44 Robertson street, next Monday at 2 o'clock.

COMPLIMENTS THE GLOBE.

R. W. Thompson, the versatile newspaper correspondent at the head of the Thompson News Bureau, pays the following compliment to The Globe in the current issue of the Indianapolis Freeman:

"One of the neatest race journals that come our way is the Nashville Globe, capably edited by J. O. Battle. Its eight pages are entirely original composition, and every paragraph is set by the up-to-date linotype machine."
